Madler is the sixth Gatorade North Dakota Football Player of the Year to be chosen from Bismarck High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Madler as North Dakota's best high school football player.

The 5-foot-11, 180-pound senior quarterback passed for 2,088 yards and 21 touchdowns this past season, leading the Demons to a 12-0 record and the Class AAA state championship. Madler completed 116 of 171 passes with just two interceptions. The Class AAA Player of the Year, he was also named West Region Player of the Year.

A basketball and baseball standout as well, Madler has volunteered locally on behalf of a soup kitchen and his school's peer support group. "Will Madler just has that 'it' factor," said Chris Clements, head coach at Legacy High School. "He has a great ability to lead the kids around him, and he makes all the plays they need to win. He's the type of kid who wants the ball in his hands, and Bismarck wouldn't have won a championship without him."

Madler has maintained a 4.0 GPA in the classroom. Congratulations Will Madler!!!!
